Understanding the Carnival Cruise Cancellation Policy

Carnival Cruise Line uses a time-based cancellation policy, +1 877 664 1281 meaning the closer you cancel to the departure date, the higher the penalty may be. The exact penalty depends on your cruise length and fare type.

For many standard sailings, the cancellation timeline generally works like this:

- 90+ days before sailing: Full refund (no cancellation penalty)
- 89–56 days before sailing: Loss of deposit only
- 55–30 days before sailing: Up to 50% of total cruise fare charged
- 29–15 days before sailing: Up to 75% of total cruise fare charged
- 14 days or less before sailing: 100% of cruise fare is non-refundable (Cruise Booking Hub)

These penalties apply to the total cruise fare, +1 877 664 1281 which typically includes cruise charges, transfer services, vacation packages, and certain flight add-ons. Government taxes, port fees, and prepaid gratuities may still be refundable depending on the situation. (Carnival Cruise Line)

If you cancel within the refundable period or your fare qualifies for reimbursement, you may request a refund by contacting US 1-877-664-1281, U.K. +44 (800)-054-8541, or Mexico +52 (800)-351-0319.

- Booking confirmation number
- Passenger names
- Payment method used for the booking
- Fare type and travel dates

Some promotional fares such as Early Saver, Super Saver, or Pack & Go deals may include non-refundable deposits or fares, meaning a refund might not be available. Instead, travelers may receive a future cruise credit depending on the fare conditions. (Carnival Cruise Line)

If the representative cannot approve the refund during the call, +1 877 664 1281 request escalation to a supervisor or billing specialist for further review.
